At first, I had doubts about the effectiveness of this little tea sachet in improving my general well-being.

To my surprise, its results were so amazing. After I tried a few teabags, I felt the immediate changes. My bowel movement became easier, my tummy flattened and my body felt lighter! My skin complexion became smoother and brighter gradually. I was showered with compliments from my friends on my radiant skin.

This herbal tea is a blend of natural organic green tea and herbs extract without laxatives. It eliminates toxins and excessive fat from the body as well as alleviates constipation problem by enhancing bowel movement. After the toxins are flushed out, the body metabolic rate and blood circulation will improve, so does the digestive system and skin texture. It will also ease nutrients absorption from the small intestines.

The green tea is rich in antioxidant properties, which can protect the skin cells from free radical damages.
